

Low Voltage Technician

Description

Do you understand this?

PLT, Access Control, Burglar and Fire Alarm Systems, Video Surveillance, Voice and Data Cabling, Central Station, Alarm.com, Structured Cabling.

Then we have a great opportunity for you!

Come be part of a growing IT Services and Systems Security company. You have experience and expertise installing low voltage cabling, video camera systems, networking, and security systems. You would like to have the flexibility of working part-time. You are a self-starter, very motivated to grow your career and increase your knowledge. You want to work with a great team who respects and appreciates you. You love to work with customers to help them make decisions on the products we install. You also enjoy training customers and other team members. You like to do things right the first time and keep good notes, records, and documentation.

Responsibilities

- Design and install low voltage systems in the area of network data cabling, building security systems, access control door locks, video surveillance systems.
- Provide a high level of customer service with excellent communication skills.
- Provide low voltage wiring documentation and project tracking in a timely manner.
- Accept and remediate support escalations from our help desk staff for low voltage systems.
- Assist in writing and implementing low voltage service and hardware quotes/designs.
- Help train and assist technical staff team members and our clients.
- Connect, network, and build relationships with clients.

Qualifications

- A great attitude.
- State of MN PLT License (REQUIRED)
- 3+ years' experience in the field.
- Fluent in English with strong verbal and written communication skills.
- Patience in working with clients.
- Open to learn from and educate co-workers.
- Valid MN driver's license with clean driving record and must possess reliable

Employment Type

Part-Time

Beginning of employment

Immediately

Date posted

January 3, 2018

transportation to travel to client offices.

- Highly motivated and a proven track record working with peers in a successful team.
- Professional appearance and self-presentation.
- Ability to manage a team to help implement and complete projects.

Apply

If you have experience in, and have a high level of competency in structured cabling, security systems, and camera systems and want the flexibility to work part-time, you should to apply now!